

WOMEN'S LEADERSHIP SUMMIT THE LAW SOCIETY - LONDON | 28TH MARCH 2017

The Women of the African Diaspora Leadership Summit is the coming together of an impressive array of BAME women in leadership positions who will facilitate the conversation about leadership in the BAME community, and share their tips, traits, characteristics, advice and strategies which got them to where they are, and which has helped them to stay there - at the top of their industries.

Sponsored by the Law Society and Lawdacity Limited, the summit is aimed at creating a visible and inclusive leadership and professional development for females from the BAME and other ethnic groups in industries sectors across the UK.

Founder Caroline Newman is a strong advocate for gender balance, diversity and inclusivity in leadership positioning across the board and all sectors in the UK.

In celebration of International Women's Day #BeBoldForChange #ChangeTheLead – the Leadership Summit promises to be an inspirational day featuring amongst others: a Special guest speaker - successful female entrepreneur who recently led a successful legal case against the UK government to preserve Parliamentary sovereignty; Donna Fraser – former British Olympian and Head of Equality & Diversity UK Athletics; Claudine Reid MBE – a leading UK entrepreneur and community leader, Her Excellency Dr Justina Mutale – Patron, Ambassador, Trustee, Advisor, Mentor and board member to various organisations in the UK and overseas Claudia Webbe, Member of Labour Party's National Executive Council.

Join 200 of the brightest minds as committed and inspiring professional and business women come together for the first Women of the African Diaspora Leadership Summit. This Summit is a call to existing and aspirational women leaders across key sectors of; business, education, media, law, medicine, executive recruitment, entrepreneurs and many others.

The Leadership Summit will take place on Saturday March 25th from 9.30am to 5pm at the Law Society building on 113 Chancery Lane, London, WC2A 1PL.

Tickets are available on Eventbrite and early bird rates will end on 15 March 2017. The price includes lunch, teas and coffees and access to the Drinks Reception.

SPEAKERS

Some of the UK's top women of colour spanning a wide span of industries.

SPECIAL GUEST

CLAIMANT IN THE BREXIT CASE AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT

PERSONAL WEALTH INVESTMENT EXPERT

CAROLINE NEWMAN LL.M

DONNA FRASER: OLYMPIAN and UK ATHLETICS

CLAUDINE REID MBE

Co-Founder & CEO PJ'S COMMUNITY SERVICE

HER EXCELLENCY JUSTINE MUTALE

FOUNDER: JUSTINA MUTALE FOUNDATION

FOUNDER

DR SHOLA MOS- SHOGBAMIMU

DR YVONNE THOMPSON CBE FRSA

AMENTI THE AWAKENER: FOUNDER AMENTI RETREATS

SPEAKER'S BIOS

SPECIAL GUEST SPEAKER

Passionate and Visionary Leader. Business Owner. Philanthropist.

This speaker is best known as the bold, brave woman who took the UK Government to court over the constitutional arrangements for Brexit.

She is the Co-founder of SCM Direct, an investment management company. She describes herself as "a passionate person with a feisty tone of voice. This is because I love what I do, and do what I believe is right. I am not afraid to speak out when I confront intellectually or morally bankrupt arguments, and have an independent mind-set."

To date she has started 7 innovative brands which have all interrogated accepted industry norms with the goal of delivering better outcomes for customers by incorporating simplicity, common sense and transparency.

She embraces the values of conscious capitalism and believes in sharing success and helping those less fortunate or drowning in the consequences of their lives. All the businesses she has started operate with a 'profit for purpose' model where a significant percentage of profits and resources are given to charities or community projects. Her mantra is that generosity can heal communities and that we can all make a difference.

Donna Fraser Olympian Former sprinter in four consecutive Olympic Games for Great Britain. Between 2011-2015, Donna held the position of president of the South of England Athletics Association, whilst also taking the role of chair at EDF Energy's BAME network from 2013- 2015. 2017, sees her new role with UK Athletics as their Equality, Diversity & Engagement Lead and for the organising committee of the 2017 world athletics championships in London.

Claudine Reid MBE one of Britain's Top 100 Women Entrepreneurs in real business magazine 2008, alongside being Director of the award winning Social Enterprise, PJ's Community Service, enhancing and transform communities, by providing, Care, Education and Enterprise Support. Trainer, TV & Radio presenter and Trustee at a London based radio station.

Her Excellency, Dr Justina Mutale: is one of the most influential and inspirational African women. "African Woman of the Year", Founder & President of the Justina Mutale Foundation for Leadership, she offers Scholarships to underprivileged Young Women from Africa. Honoured as a Stateswoman; Global Leader of the Year; and Iconic Woman Leader of the Decade, she serves on the World Leaders Forum.

Claudia Webbe MSc, BA (Hons)

Claudia Webbe is a member of the Labour Party's National Executive Committee (NEC). Claudia is also an elected politician; a local Councillor representing Bunhill Ward in the London Borough of Islington. She is a member of Islington Council's Executive Committee responsible for all strategy, policy and big decision making with a specific focus on environment and transport. Claudia was a political and senior advisor to the first Mayor of London.

Claudia is the current Chair and lead on recycling at the North London Waste Authority, member of the London Council's Transport and Environment Committee, a member of the Cross Rail High Level Forum and is a Commissioner on the Mayor of London's Sustainable Development Commission and independent advisor to the National Chief Police Council's Criminal Use of Firearms committee

AMENTI the Awakener, is an Inspirational Speaker, Soul Coach, and Spiritual Teacher who uses her own life experiences and skills to help awaken others to their true potential and life purpose.

VENUE

The Law Society Of England: 113 Chancery Lane London WC2A 1PL