

“Female Genital Mutilation; Law, Policy and Practice”

A seminar held by the Association of Asian Women Lawyers in conjunction with 7 Bedford Row to highlight the practice of FGM, to consider how law and policy deal with it, and to discuss what more should be done to eradicate it.

Date: Monday 24th June 2013
Registration: 5:30pm
Seminar: 6:00pm - 8:00pm
Drinks: 8:00pm onwards
Venue: 7 Bedford Row, London, WC1R 4BS
2 CPD

Speakers

Juliet Albert (Specialist FGM Midwife) "FGM - what does it involve?"

David Matthew (Barrister, 7 Bedford Row) "FGM- the criminal law"

Keir Starmer QC (Director of Public Prosecutions) "FGM - CPS policy and approach"

Naana Otoo-Oyortey (Director of FORWARD) "FGM - Taking a stand"

Ann-Marie Wilson (Director of 28 Too Many) "FGM – Advocating for rights through research"

To be followed by a Panel Discussion chaired by Rachel Langdale QC

Panellists

Diana Nammi (Director of IKWRO)

Barbara Connolly QC (Barrister, 7 Bedford Row)

Anne-Marie Hutchinson OBE (Solicitor, Dawson Cornwell)

And Speakers

To register or for further details please contact Szilvia Babinszki on sbabinszki@7br.co.uk